The March number of Current History of the European War, published by the New York Times, is replete with interesting articles and deals with the official French report on the German atrocities and the stories of Turkey and her neighbors as told by themselves. In addition to the excellent photographs a new feature is the cartoons on the war from the leading European journals.

Miss Adles, who will soon start on her usual spring tour, has customers in other cities, reminding ladies to improve the chance to have their hair attended to by an expert. See adv.

DAVIS THEATRE.

John Barrymore in The Man From Mexico, Paramount Feature, and Three Big Vaudeville Acts Today.

John Barrymore, the inimitable American actor, who made such a hit here in the Paramount feature, "The Man From Mexico," will again be the attraction for the first half of this week in his latest success, The Man From Mexico. This clever little comedy success, John Barrymore needs no introduction to the American public; his fame as an actor is known to all, and is known to everyone, and his superb acting of comedy roles is always refreshing and delightful. In The Man From Mexico he is seen at his best, and on one will care to miss seeing this great picture. The vaudeville feature on the bill is something out of the ordinary and the position is filled by Seymour's Happy Family, one of the finest comedies on the vaudeville stage today. These clever little animal performers do many stunts that must be seen to be believed, and the act is a marvel in animal training. This is an act that the children will enjoy as well as the grown-ups, so bring the little ones with you this week. Ford and Fuller present a new and refined melody and pleasing surprises, with an artistic Egyptian dance introduced by Miss Fuller, and a new and refined melody, a refined singing and talking comedian, who has a clever line of songs and stories. The remainder of the bill is made up of Mutual comedies, including the Mutual War Weekly, with scenes from the war zone, and one funny Keystone comedy called A Lucky Leap, and it is just one long riot of laughter. Matinee every day at 2:15; all seats 10 cents, children 5 cents.
